The Statement of Janet Farr sets forth the date and time of deposit and declares that the copies of the correspondence, the "Express Mail" mailing label no. EJ464626748US, and retained copy of the postcard receipt accompanying this petition are true copies of the correspondence, mailing label and returned postcard receipt originally mailed. 37 C.F.R. § 1.10(e)(4).

Submitted herewith are the following are the papers required by 37 C.F.R. § 1.10(e)(3) in support of the instant petition:

1. The above referenced statement of Thomas W. Adams.
2. The above referenced statement of Janet Farr.
3. A true copy of each of the originally deposited papers, including the specification, claims, drawings and abstract, the Utility Patent Application Transmittal form (Exhibit A), the Fee Transmittal form (Exhibit B), the Certificate of Mailing (Exhibit C), the retained copy of the postcard receipt (Exhibit D), a Letter relating to the declaration and power of attorney (Exhibit E), an Information Disclosure Statement (Exhibit F) and form PTO-1449 (Exhibit G). 5. A printout from the U.S. Postal Service Tracking & Delivery Internet Web Site showing that the Express Mail envelope with receipt no. EJ464626748US was both received by the U.S. Postal Service on March 15, 2000, and delivered to the U.S. P.T.O. at 11:00 AM on March 16, 2000 (Exhibit I).

6. 2. On March 15, 2000, I was in Osaka, Japan. I returned from Japan on Friday, March 31, 2000.

3. Immediately upon returning to my office, on Monday, April 3, 2000, I began checking for the postcard receipt, since I had been instructed by the Applicant to file a Preliminary Amendment immediately upon receipt of the serial number for this CIP application. I checked the file for the above-identified application to determine whether the postcard receipt had been received. No postcard receipt was in the file. I inquired of the firm's docket clerk to determine whether the copy of the postcard receipt retained by the docket clerk had been matched with a postcard receipt returned from the U.S. P.T.O. The docket clerk's retained copy remained, not having been matched with a returned postcard receipt. These inquiries showed that, as of April 3, 2000, the postcard receipt had not yet been received.

4. I immediately requested the receptionist (who opens and distributes new mail), the docket clerk (who matches the docket clerk's retained copy with the returned postcard receipt), and each secretary who might have reason to come into contact with the file for this application, to keep watch for the postcard.

5. I continued checking with the personnel identified in paragraph 4 every few days for the next 30 days. During this time, the postcard receipts which were actually received in our office reflected dates of receipt in the U.S. P.T.O. from March 15 through April 15, 2000. As of May 3, 2000, the postcard receipt had still not been received by this office.

6. On Thursday, May 3, 2000, I contacted Examiner Kozma, in Group 2800, regarding the CIP application. Examiner Kozma was the Examiner in charge of the parent application to the present CIP application.

7. Examiner Kozma checked the PALM system, and determined that no record of the CIP application had been entered in the system. Examiner Kozma suggested that I contact the Group 2800 Customer Service Personnel.

8. Later on May 3, 2000, I left messages for Tiffany Vines, Chief Clerk in the Group 2800 Customer Service office (703-308-8784), and at the Group 2800 Customer Service number (703-306-3329), requesting they telephone me with respect to the present CIP application.

9. On May 4, 2000, Wynette Stapor of the Group 2800 customer Service office telephoned me. Ms. Stapor advised me that no record of the CIP application could be found in the PALM system or in any records which were available to her. Ms. Stapor also located the parent file (U.S. Serial No. 08/526,713) and determined that the papers had not been mistakenly filed or placed in that case.

10. Ms. Stapor further advised me, on May 4, 2000, to re-file all of the papers, including the present petition.

Accordingly, it is respectfully submitted that the present petition is being filed promptly after the undersigned, on behalf of the Applicants, became aware that the Office has no evidence of receipt of the correspondence.

Respectfully submitted,

Information Disclosure Statement PTO-1449 (Modified)

The identification of any reference is not intended to be, and should not be understood as being, an admission that such publication, in fact, constitutes "prior art" within the meaning of applicable law since, for example, a given reference may have a later effective date than first seems apparent or the reference may have an effective date which can be antedated. The "prior art" status of any reference is a matter to be resolved during prosecution.
